OUTLINES.

On Tuesday Pulajanes in the Island of Leyte, Philippines, attacked the town of Buraven, killed five policemen and carried off the balance of the force as captive, after a stubborn fight.——The Kentucky Railroad Commission has ordered the Louisville and Nashville and other railroads to reduce freight rates on a basis of 25 per cent.——William R. Hearst in a speech to the Federation of Labor, in Washington yesterday, advises working men to go into politics.——The House yesterday, after considerable debate, passed a bill appropriating $25,000 to pay the traveling expenses of the President; Underwood, of Alabama, quoted the consitution to show that it forbids emoluments for the President.——The Prince and Princess of Wales arrived at Trondhjen to attend the coronation of Norway's new King.——The Senate yesterday discussed the meat inspection bill, Senators Proctor Beveridge and Lodge taking strong position against making the government pay the cost of inspection and insisting that labels should be dated.——In the House yesterday the measures to extend the term of Representatives from two to four years and to allow National banks to make loans on real estate, were defeated; a bill regulating the checking of baggage by common carriers was passed.——Senator Morgan yesterday advocated a sea leyel canal on the Isthmus.——At Sioux Falls, South Dakota, yesterday a mob hissed and shouted "lynch her" when Mrs. Emma Kaufman, a wealthy woman appeared in court on a charge of murdering her seventeen year old maid servant.——New York Markets: Money on call steady, 3 to 3½ per cent., ruling rate 3¼ to 3½, closing bid 3¼, offered at 3½; spot cotton steady, 10.95; flour steady; wheat firm, No. 2 red, 95 elevator; corn firm, No. 2, 59⅞ elevator; oats steady, mixed 45½; turpentine firm; rosin quiet; strained, common to good, $3.90 to $4.05.

That Col. W. W. Lumpkin, who is going to give Senator Tillman a chase for his place in the Senate, must be a man who hates a dull time.

An old shoemaker at Tangier who killed 36 women was, by sentence of the Moroccan court, walled up alive in a stone tomb. He might have known some horrible fate would overtake him at the last, is what some paragrapher is bound to say under the circumstances.

Lawyer William Nelson Cromwell, who acted as go between for the Panama Canal Company in palming off its franchise and rights on the United States, and who was also one of President Roosevelt's trusted agents, seems to know something that he doesn't want the Senate canal committee to find out.

That is strange news that comes from Johnston, Pa., that in the mining section near that city the whites beat a negro to death. However, it is said to be only the fifth clash between whites and negroes there during the past year. The negro was not killed because of any crime he had committed, and that shows the difference between the treatment of the negro in the North and at the South.

The dispatches tell us that on Sunday an automobile ran into another at Asbury Park, killing a chauffeur, and that in other places the auto did this and did that, smashing vehicles and killing a horse or two. However, on Long Island, also on Sunday, an auto went up against a locomotive, but the score was a goose-egg for the auto.

The esteemed Raleigh News and Observer is congratulated upon the announcement that ground has been broken for a new and handsome home for that paper. The building will be modern and architecturally up-to-date and arranged with special reference to the publication of a newspaper. Of ccurse, it will be in the most important centre of the capital city, and we take it as only one of the evidences of the prosperity which the News and Observer creates for itself by enterprise in newspaper making.

An Asheville dispatch, speaking of the sudden dismissal of Collector H. S. Harkins and the appointment of George H. Brown as his successor, says the thing came as a surprise, and adds: "The past evidence of friendship that Mr. Roosevelt has shown the Asheville collector and the fine record that Mr. Harkins has made during his term of collector convinced the people beyond a doubt that the President would 'stand pat' and that Mr. Harkins would not be disturbed." The President's friendship nothing. Little, old Federal offices are doled out on pulls.

27 WERE EXAMINED

Civil Service Examination Yesterday for Appointments in Custom House Service.

CLASS A RECORD-BREAKER

Twenty From Wilmington and Five Colored Men—Position Pays $1,400 Per Year With Nominal Duties—Result to Be Certified.

A civil service examination to furnish a list of eligibles for appointment to the position of Seond Deputy Collector at the port of Wilmington, which has not been permanently filled since the recent promotion of Mr. T. L. Vines to the office of First Deputy to succeed John E. Taylor, resigned, was held yesterday in the United States court room in this city and was conducted by the Local Board of Examiners, composed of Messrs. J. D. Doscher, Jr., T. L. Vines and W. G. A. Otersen. It continued for five hours from 9 A. M. and brought out the largest class of applicants in the history of the local Board, twenty-seven in all having stood for appointment. Twenty of the applicants were from this city and five of the number were colored men. The questions covered a wide range and the examination was regarded as rather difficult in comparison with other civil service examinations submitted here recently. The papers of the applicants will be forwarded to the Treasury Department at Washington and the three who stood highest will be eligible to appointment in the service. The list of eligibles will stand for two years and in the event of a vacancy by death or from other causes the names of the eligibles will be considered. After two years, if there is another vacancy, another examination will be held. The position pays $1,400 a year.

Among those who stood the examination yesterday were the following from Wilmington: Walter D. Kelly, Albert B. Guyton, John T. Sholar, Arthur J. Clement, George J. Sykes, Addison Hewlett, Harry C. Mintz, Jackson J. Clemmonds, Hugh B. Farrington, George A. Woodward, A. Victor Martin, Jas. F. Whitaker, Jas. T. Riley, John M. Taylor, Thos. M. Moore, William S. Clayton, Hermon S. Meredith, Robert D. Moore, and Wm. Sheehan, Jr.

Those from out of the city were: Paul Crumpler, Clinton; George H. Gray, Winnabow; William A. Crumpler, Clinton; Edwin McK. Highsmith, Kerr; John H. Greene, High Point; Edward R. Dudley, Jr., Newbern, and Robert S. Jarvey, Elbow.

Carried to Brunswick County.

An officer from Brunswick county arrived yesterday and took back with him in the afternoon a negro named Barney Gibson, arrested here Tuesday by Officer R. L. Truelove, charged with the larceny of a bicycle from a man at Leland. The negro took it to the Queen City Cycle Company, on Market street, and in this way the arrest was accomplished. Gibson claims he got the machine from another negro whom the police have been unable to find.

Middle Sound, N. C., June 20.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon at "Rustling Leaves," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gerritt Walker, Mr. Lester Lamb Newell and Miss Elizabeth Delbridge Walker were married by Rev. Dr. A. D. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Gerrit Walker. The best man was the groom's cousin, Mr. W. H. Newell, Jr. The maid of honor was Miss Norma Louisa Northam.

The improvised altar in the parlor was perfectly and beautifully decorated with palms, daisies and smilax, and as the bridal party entered the wedding march was charmingly rendered by Miss Isabelle Struthers.

The bride was attired in white chiffon batiste and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore white organdie with Persian sash and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room where a reception was held, the color scheme being pink and white. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Bellamy Harriss and the Misses Isabelle Struthers, Keith Covington and Calena Newell.

A BOWLING MATCH.

New York Man Will Endeavor to Lower Orr's Record.

A match will be rolled at the Lumina bowling alleys this evening, in which Albert F. Arnold, of New York, will endeavor to lower the colors of R. C. Orr, who has been doing some phenomenal bowling at Lumina of late. Both contestants have been practicing on the Lumina alleys for the pats two weeks in preparation for this match, and as a large purse hinges on the result of the games, some interesting scores should be the result. The games will start promptly at 9 o'clock; three games to be rolled and total pins to count.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION AT WARSAW YESTERDAY

Judge Oliver H. Allen and Solicitor Rodolph Duffy are Renominated Without Opposition and Their Courses Commended.

Judge Oliver H. Allen, of Lenoir, and Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, of Onslow, were re-nominated unanimously and by acclamation at the Fifth District Judicial Convention, held yesterday at Warsaw, N. C. As there were no contests for the nominations, the Convention was very slimly attended though the enthusiasm was very marked. All of the counties were represented by something like fifty delegates except Pender. The convention assembled at noon in the Odd Fellows' Hall, in the town, and was called to order by Henry E. Faison, of Sampson. Brooke G. Empie, Esq., of New Hanover, was called to the chair as temporary chairman and later this organization was made permanent. The proceedings were harmonious throughout and all delegates brought good report from their respective sections of the district.

The credentials committee reported through the chairman, William J. Bellamy, Esq., that there were no contests and also made report of the convention vote to which each county was entitled. Mr. H. D. Williams, of Kenansville, was made secretary, and the nominations were at once declared in order.

Hon. Oliver H. Allen was placed in nomination by G. V. Cooper, Esq., of Kinston, and enthusiastic seconding speeches were made by Dr. J. M. Faison, of Faison, and others. The renomination was by acclamation.

Henry A. Grady, Esq., of Sampson, nominated Hon. Rodolph Duffy, and his re-nomination was also by acclamation and with some show of enthusiasm. Resolutions endorsing these officials were unanimously adopted upon report from the committee appointed for that purpose.

The new executive committee of the Fifth District was chosen as follows to serve for the ensuing two years: H. A. Grady, of Clinton, chairman; Frank Thompson, Esq., of Onslow, secretary; and Messrs. G. V. Cooper, of Kinston; William J. Bellamy, of Wilmington; John T. Bland, of Burgaw, and H. D. Williams, of Kenansville.

The Convention was in session a little less than two hours and adjourned sine die. Neither Judge Allen nor Solicitor Duffy were present. New Hanover was represented only by Messrs. Empie and Bellamy, who returned last evening on the train from the North.

IN PINK AND WHITE

Pretty Wedding Ceremony in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Yesterday Afternoon.

HALF AFTER FIVE O'CLOCK

Miss Nita oWdson Smith, the Attractive Young Bride of Mr. Thomas Henry Griffin—Brief Reception and Bridal Tour.

A beautiful wedding ceremony in Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church at half after five o'clock yesterday afternoon joined in marriage Miss Nita Woodson Smith, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith, and Mr. Thomas Henry Griffin, a popular young clerk in the Passenger Department of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city. The interior of the church had been very attractively decorated and thronged with a large assemblage of friends and relatives, the scene was a pretty one indeed.

Long before the arrival of the bridal party, the beautiful new organ of St. Andrew's filled the church with majestic harmony. Miss Carrie White's lyric soprano was delightfully heard in DeKoven's "O! Promise Me," and the bridal song from Lohengrin was exquisitely rendered by a quartette composed as follows: Miss Carrie White, Miss Sallie Smith, Mr. A. B. Sandlin and Mr. George S. Boylan. From the deep recesses of the church, amid the palms and ferns, floated the soft, sweet strains of the wedding music as the bridal party entered. First down either aisle came Miss Mary Belle King and Mr. H. E. Boney, bridesmaid and usher, respectively; then, Miss Sallie Huggins, bridesmaid, and Mr. J. H. McFarlane, usher, in the same order; next, Miss Isabel McDougal, bridesmaid, and Mr. J. M. Taylor, usher, in like order. Then the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Madge McDougal, entered down the left aisle, crossing over, and at the altar joining the groom with his best man, Mr. A. F. Gibson, who entered from the lecture room.

Then the service of the Presbyterian church was impressively spoken by the pastor, the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., and the gladsome strains of the wedding march announced that the ceremony was over, the bridal party passing out of the church in reverse order from that in which they came.

The wedding was in pink and white, and is described as one of the prettiest ever witnessed in St. Andrews The bride was becomingly gowned in silk radium with illusion veil and she carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was charmingly attired in white batiste while the bridesmaids wore pretty costumes of silk mulle, with bouquets of pink and white. The male attendants wore the conventional black suits with boutonnieres of white carnations.

After the ceremony a brief reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and later the bride and groom, accompanied by friends, repaired to the A. C. L. station whence they departed on the northbound train for a bridal tour which will include visits to Asheville, N. C., Washington, D. C., and the groom's former home in Rocky Mount, N. C. They will be at home after July 1st., at Fourth and Grace streets. Both are very popular in Wilmington and this was attested by the large number of handsome wedding gifts received.

REFORMATORY FOR WAYWARD YOUTH.

The heart of the Charlotte News is in the right place in making an appeal for the unfortunate young girl who was recently convicted of manslaughter for shooting and killing a man at Concord. The News says:

"Susan Hannon, the young girl of Concord, who murdered H. Y. Stack, is now under sentence of maslaughter and is doomed to five long years in the state penitentiary, according to the sentence of the judge who heard the case.

"She is young, tender and impressionable now. After five years in the penitentiary, surrounded by depravity, associated with hardened criminals, and in an atmosphere where hope or a thought of reform is an unknown quantity, she will come out from the prison walls a callous, set, hardened woman, unfit for society, careless of her future.

"A petition is being circulated, signed by the attorneys at the Bar and by a great number of the people of Concord, asking that Governor Glenn grant her a conditional pardon in order that she may be sent to a reformatory or to some good home where every effort possible will be made to eradicate the blot upon her youthful career and start her upon a nobler course. The petition provides that in case she acts in bad faith, in case such pardon is granted, she will then be forced to serve out her original sentence.

"It is the same old story of the sin of erring youth, and of how to deal with the case. Time and again we have urged the necessity for a reformatory for such young criminals as Susie Hannon. We reiterate the importance of such institution and shall continue to do so until we have some place for young criminals in this State more conducive of repentance, hope and reform than the state penitentiary.

"It is our sincere hope that a sufficient number of names will be found on the petition when presented to the Governor to cause him to give the case thorough consideration, and it is likewise our hope that he may see his way clear in granting this conditional pardon."

The pitable case of the young Concord girl is the strongest argument yet presented for a reformatory in North Carolina. The Star has many times urged the imperitive necessity for such an institution, and it will be positively criminal in the next General Assembly not to take some steps in that direction. The Star joins the News in its strong and irresistable plea for an institution that would do credit to the charity and philanthrophy of a great State.

RAILROADS AND RATE BILL.

Last week a number of the traffic officials of the railways held a meeting in Chicago, and besides the matters which concerned their lines, they discussed the railroad outlook, the rate bill and other matters affecting the railroads. It is said that they agreed that the railroads would get considerable benefit out of the rate bill, and in fact the anti-rebate, or Elkins act, had saved the railroads $1,000,000 since the first of last January. The railroads generally agreed that rebating ought to stop, and at the time the matter was under discussion we were not surprised to see the railroads managers jumping over themselves to favor the bill. It would break up rebates, secret rates, and favors for special corporations and firms, and place all the railroads on an equal footing. It may be hard on some communities that were the beneficiaries of the rebate business but certainly it was to the interest of the railroads to have the rebate policy broken up.

Concerning the meeting of the traffic men at Chicago a dispatch says:

"The railroads themselves were not aware that so many secret rates existed and that so many rebates were paid as have been disclosed by public hearings and by the confessions of traffic men in secret meetings. The Interstate Commerce Commission has only scratched the surface, but it has resulted in a gradual cancellation of all secret rates and practices. The investigations had not proceeded far before the railroad people in traffic meetings discovered that secret rates and rebates permeated the transportation of grain, lumber, provisions, coal and steel—the last named to a small extent—and to other large tonnage producing commodities.

"Only this week one Eastern road corrected a secret rate whereby the revenue of the company was increased fully $300 a day, the tonnage affected being fully 3,000 tons daily. This secret rate had been in effect for years and the railroads competing with the road in question had been unable to run it to earth. Eastern investigations caused the railroad officials to fear signing any more rebate vouchers, and an open tariff was put in to cover the contract. Scores of instances of this kind have developed."

CLAIRVOYANT'S PREDICTION.

The Bryan revival is reviving some of the predictions of the clairvoyants, one of whom has foretold the election of William J. Bryan as President. We don't take much stock in the seers, but their predictions are entertaining and sometimes marvelous. They may be good guessers or good prophets just as one cares to take it. The Washington Post comes along with the revival of a prophesy which we believe will be interesting about this time. The Post says:

"Apropos of the Countess de Long's prophecy of Mr. Bryan's election in 1908, a prominent official at the city hall yesterday showed a Post reporter a clipping which he had carried in his pocketbook for eight years, in which the prophecy is made that McKinley would die in the midst of his second term and that Roosevelt would be elected to succeed himself.

"The clipping, which was made from a small paper published in Colorado, reads as follows:

"'The editor of Occult Truths, Washington, D. C., has dropped into prophecy. He says:

"'"McKinley will die in the midst of his second term and Roosevelt will finish out the term. Four years thence Roosevelt will be elected to succeed himself. During his Presidency the United States will become involved in a world war, and will be miraculously victorious over five allied European nations. Roosevelt's name will go down to posterity as equal to or greater than Washington's or Lincoln's."'

"The official mentioned suggested that as all the prophecy had been verified with the exception of the "world war," perhaps this might be the national calamity expected by the countess to occur next December."

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

The Manchurian question, involving the future and policy of China and Japan, has already caused the bloodiest war of modern times, and students of events see in it further menace of the peace of the world. There are already ominous results of the Japanese occupation, and events in Manchuria will be watched with ever increasing interest. It is timely, therefore, that a new book is just out dealing with this interesting and important subject. Its title is "The New Far East," and its author is Thomas F. Millard, who is familiar with the subject and writes from observation and experience in Manchuria, China and Japan. He gives a history of the tragic and dramatic events in Manchuria, states his conception of the true position and aims of Japan in Manchuria and Korea, and forecasts the future. He says Japan treats Korea as a conquered province, and as to Manchuria holds the opinion that Japan has entered upon a selfish policy of aggrandizement, and that her success is more apt to prove detrimental than beneficial to the future of American commerce and political influence in the farther Pacific. A matter of intense interest to Americans is Mr. Millard's description of the inception and development of the socalled "American Boycott." He attributes the progress of this peculiar movement, in a measure, to the Japanese influence, and his reasons for this opinion are clearly and consistetly set before the reader. The author, Thos. F. Millard, was the representative of Scribner's Magazine in Manchuria during and subsequent to the Russo-Japanese war, and pending that great drama some of his magazine articles were almost sensational, so widely did they oppose views then generally held regarding events and policies. His book shows how far he was right. It is published by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. Price $1.50.

The American Magazine for July has been received, and is more than ever welcome for its excellence of contents and handsome appearance. The cover design is typical of the month which gave birth to the great American republic, and the illustrations are attractive and entertaining. There is a delectable table of contents, and Southern readers will be specially interested in the second article of Henry Kitchell Webster, whose subject is "The Slave of Cotton; the South's Gigantic Problem." The Webster article is illustrated with a field of open cotton underneath which are the words "A crop like this means a year of plenty to one third of the universe." Mr. Webster deals specially in this article with the Southern Cotton Association and its work, and he gives us a picture of Richard Cheatham, secretary of the association, whose energy and shrewdness brought about the disclosures concerning the cotton leak in the Agricultural Department at Washington. The other features of the American Magazine are admirable, and it will please all readers. The subscription price is $1 per annum; single copies 10 cents. Address Colver Publishing House, 141-147 Fifth avenue, New York.

ADVISES VICTIMS TO TRY KEELEY

Drunkard Who Was In Despair Cured Fourteen Years Ago—No Longer Desires Liquor.

I went to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro about twelve or fourteen years ago. I was at that time a drunkard, and if I had died then I would have gone down to Hell; but now I have been delivered from that terrible evil, and have been forgiven my sins. And I do thank God that I have no longer any desire for drink. I feel that I can praise your Institute for the great good it has done me and mine. It is hard to realize that there was a time when I only thought of whiskey, sacrificing my friends and family for the sake of the demon drink. GEORGE A. LUPTON,

Beaufort, N. C., Dec. 7, 1904.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

—In the near future the officials of Main Street Methodist church, at Durham, will begin the erection of one of the finest churches in the State. The old home place of the late W. T. Blackwell has been secured and it is understood that a church edifice to cost $100,000 will be erected.

—The sloop Hattie, belonging to Capt. H. E. Way, of South Creek, Beaufort county, sunk Sunday night, off Indian Island, in Pamlico river, 30 miles from Washington, N. C. She had on board 150 barrels of Irish potatoes. The crew was aroused from their berths by the water and escaped.

—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown, who reside at Belew's Creek, on the old C. F. & Y. V. road, 18 miles east of Winston-Salem, were struck by lightning and killed during a thunder storm Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who were estimable citizens, recently moved to Belew's Creek from Rockingham county. They leave seven children.

—Raleigh News and Observer June 20: Charged with a criminal assault upon a little white girl, just eight years of age a negro boy, aged fifteen, is in Wake county jail. The negro boy is named Clement Rowland and the attempted assault took place in Panther Branch township. The little girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Britt, of that township.

—At a meeting of the board of aldermen of Durham, on Monday night, it was decided to take a complete census of the city at an early date. It is proposed that, in addition to taking a census of the city a census will be taken of East and West Durham and other suburbs, so that the census of the city proper will be available and also a census of the entire settlement.

—Newbern special, June 19: Articles of incorporation have been registered for the Newbern Light & Fuel Co., successors to the Newbern Gas Company. J. H. T. Martin, of New York, is president and J. M. Cox, of Muscatine, Iowa, will be local manager. The new concern will enlarge and improve the present plant and will also conduct a store in connection with the plant. The transfer will be made July 1. S. W. Smallwood was the president of the former company. The new company is capitalized at $100,000.

—Charlotte special, June 19: Mr. Jackson Christian, grandson of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, of this city has gone to West Point as a first year man. Mr. Christian and his son went from Atlanta, where Mr. Christian resides, being Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Seaboard Air Line. President Roosevelt, as a mark of esteem and honor to the memory of the illustrious grandfather of the young man, and in honor of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, appointed young Christian last year to a cadetship in West Point.

—The official announcement has been made, by President John Skelton Williams, of the appointment of Messrs. A. Pope and R. W. Bidgood respectively, to the offices of traffic manager and auditor of the Valdosta Nashville & Sparks Railroad Company the Douglas, Augusta & Gulf Railway Company, the Augusta & Florida Railway Company, and the Millen & Southwestern Railroad Company, with offices in Augusta, Ga. Messrs. Pope and Bidgood were formerly well known railroad men in North Carolina, Mr. Bidgood for years being with the C. F. & Y. V. Railway at Fayetteville.

—The government weather report for North Carolina on Tuesday says during the present week there was very little sunshine, but frequent thunderstorms, excessive rains everywhere, especially in the east and west, over 9 1-2 inches having fallen at Newbern and the average rainfall being over three inches in excess of the normal. Damage was done by washing lands and by high water in Lincoln, Burke, Chatham, Anson, Randolph and Scotland counties. The average temperature during the week was from two to eight degrees below the normal, the highest being 90 in Halifax and the lowest 50 in Lincoln.

—Charlotte Observer: The housekeepers of the city are complaining of the trouble caused them by negro men calling up and wanting to talk with the servants over the 'phone. Within the last few days two ladies have lost servants because they refused to allow them to use the 'phone. The telephone people are also sore. They say that they have no end of trouble with negroes, some of them uppish, who call up homes in the city for the purpose of chatting the cook or maid.

—Greensboro special, June 19: The greatest conspicuous figure on the streets of this city today was Congressman Blackburn, who held counsel with a number of his political lieutenants. The robust representative was heartily congratulated upon his apparent signal victory over the organization in forcing the retirement of Collector H. S. Harkins and having Mr. George H. Brown, of Statesville, appointed in his stead. When approached as to his campaign, Mr. Blackburn declared that he is confident of victory and will enter the thick of the fight at once. Mr. Blackburn's residence in this city, advertised to be sold under trustee's sale yesterday, was not sold. The sale was continued until today when it was announced that a settlement had been effected.

—Dispatch from Bristol, Tenn., June 19: J. M. Ashburn, who was recently arrested in Lexington, Ky., on a sensational charge of bigamy and returned to this city, where he was married to Stella Davis, daughter of J. H. Davis, of Elk Park, N. C., was today released upon motion of the father of the girl. Ashburn admitted the second marraige but said he thought he had a divorce from his first wife through a Cuban court. Ashburn will return to Lexington. It develops that Miss Davis, on whose account the suit was brought, was also his first cousin. She returned with him here, refusing to be separated from him, declaring her belief in his innocence and her determination to live with him when he has freed himself from his present difficulties. The girl's blind faith in the man is said to be responsible for the withdrawal of the suit.

—Asheville special, June 19: The announcement yesterday afternoon that Collector H. S. Harkins had been removed from office without a moment's warning and that George H. Brown, of Statesville, had been appointed as Mr. Harkins' successor, created a sensation in political circles here. Mr. Harkins was informed of the new deal yesterday morning in a message from Washington and a few of his friends were acquainted with the facts. The office force holding office under the collector and the politicians and citizens generally, however, were not aware that there was to be a change in the office until the local press made the announcement. The removal of Collector Harkins and the appointment of Mr. Brown came as an astonishing surprise. It was generally believed that Mr. Harkins was firmly fixed in the collector's office during the remainder of President Roosevelt's term and that all the efforts of Mr. Blackburn would avail not.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—They cure sick kidneys

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street betwen Sixth and Seventh, says "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers I went to Belamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

GUY-JOHNSON AFFRAY.

Former Policeman Fined $20 Yesterday—Other Cases Heard.

In the municipal court yesterday Ex-Policeman M. E. Guy was fined $20 including the costs for his part in the affray with Alderman E. F. Johnson, on Dock street, Tuesday morning. In imposing the fine, Mayor Waddell delivered a severe reprimand to the former officer, stating that his attack on the city official was entirely uncalled for and was without excuse.

Only Mr. Johnson's version of the affair was heard in the court, Mr. Guy submitting his case and offering no evidence in his own behalf. The only witness for the prosecution was Mr. Johnson, who told the story of the affair practically as has been published. Mr. Johnson had not been summoned as a witness but he was present to see what would be done in the matter and was called to the stand by the Mayor to testify. Mr. Guy asked a few questions of Mr. Johnson in bringing out the fact that he had not fought so much because of Mr. Johnson's opposition to his election to the police force as to the impeachment of his character as a man. The trial attracted a good crowd of the curious but there were no sensational developments in connection with the hearing.

The ony other case of interest in the police court yesterday was that of William Ray, a colored youth charged with the larceny of a dog badge from a canine belonging to Mr. W. C. Armstrong. Mr. Armstrong, as luck would have it, purchased No. 1 when the badges were first put on sale and in going to the bank after making the purchase casually remarked that he had got the first dog badge issued this year. Mr. W. A. Wilson heard the remark and in paying off the colored boy a few days ago, he had occasion to receive some change in return. In pulling the money out of his pocket, the boy took out the badge and it was at once recognized by Mr. Wilson, who informed Mr. Armstrong the following day, resulting in the boy's arrest. He was represented by A. J. Marshall, Esq., but the evidence showed probable cause and the boy was bound over under $25 which was given with Jno. W. Plummer, Jr., as surety.

T. L. Ruth, a huckster at Second and Market streets, had been served with a warrant charging him with blockading the sidewalk at his place of business, but the case was continued until to-day.

OPENING OF THE CASINO.

Vaudeville at The Beach Beginning Next Monday Night.

Col. C. G. Hamilton, lessee of the Casino on the beach, arrived yesterday and with his local manager, Mr. W. A. Johnson, is making all arrangements for the opening of the vaudeville season at Wrightsville next Monday night. The Casino has been handsomely repainted inside and out and a large number of electric lights installed, with new scenery and all stage accessories. The opening bill will be Blamphin and Hehr, who come direct from the Majestic Theatre in Chicago and who are said to be artists of no mean ability. Blamphin is a fine tenor and Miss Hehr, a gifted soprano, who will some day ascend to the highest pinnacle of her profession in the opinion of all who have heard her. The Chicago papers have a number of very favorable criticisms of this team and the company which Col. Hamilton will bring as his opening attraction.

Col. Hamilton has threatres here, at Salisbury and in New Jersey and on this circuit will have a line of splendid attractions during the Summer, playing afternoon and night engagements.

Naval Reserves Inspection.

The annual inspection of the Wilmington Division of Naval Reserves will take place this evening and will be public, which will give people an opportunity of seeing the jackies in full regalia. The inspection will take place on one of the streets in the city, commencing at 7 o'clock, and will be made by Inspector General Bain.

There will be no 2:45 trip of the steamer Wilmington to-day. **

WINSTON FIRE CHIEF DEAD.

News Received With Sorrow By Wilmington Department Members.

Members of the Wilmington Fire Department, especially those who have been attending the State tournament within the past several years, have heard with sorrow of the death of Chief A. J. Gayle, of the Winston, N. C., Fire Department. He was a man of the finest character and a fire fighter whose daring and efficiency was the remark of the laddies all over the State.

Chief Gales died in a New York hospital Monday night at 10:30 o'clock as the result of an operation. He and his wife had gone to Bristol for a visit and stopped in Baltimore to consult a specialist in regard to his health. An operation was suggested and as the result of this his death ensued. He was a native of Bristol, Eng., but came to America in 1872 and in 1876 to North Carolina. He was a charter member of the Winston company and was captain until elected chief. He was prominent in secret order circles and was for six years a member of the Board of Aldermen of Winston. The members of the Wilmington Fire Department feel a personal loss in the death of Chief Gale.

SAD DEATH AT ATKINSON.

Young Lady Passed Away in South Georgia—Personal Items.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., June 19.—One of the saddest deaths among the people of our community for a long time, occurred yesterday when Miss Sudie Estelle Alderman, aged 19, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Alderman, of this place, passed away in Lyons, Ga., where she was on an extended visit to friends. Fifteen days ago while there she was stricken with malarial fever from which she died. Her remains were brought home on the southbound A. & Y. train this afternoon and were followed to the family burying grounds by a large gathering of friends. Rev. J. H. Dobson, of the Baptist church, of which the young lady was a consistent member, conducted the services. Miss Alderman is survived by her father, mother, one brother and one little sister, besides a very great many friends. The pall-bearers at the funeral were Messrs. J. D. Carver, J. N. Henry, R. A. Barnhill, R. L. Pridgen, E. A. Hawes, Jr., and E. E. Murphy.

Among those from this place who attended the Ladies' Missionary Union at Clarkton last week were Misses Lillian, Mary and Flora Colvin and Mattie Hawes. The last named is extending her visit to include friends in Wilmington.

Miss Jennie Hawes, who has been in school at Beaufort, has returned home and is accompanied by two of her friends, Misses Mary Whitford and Carrie Hutton, who are spending some time with her.

THE NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Postoffice Situation—Governor's Appointments—Negro Jailed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—Governor Glenn to-day issued a commission to L. G. Daniels, of Newbern, as a member of the board of directors of the North Carolina Railroad to succeed C. T. Watson, who died at Newbern Sunday.

The latest turn in the postoffice situation here is a well founded report that Col. John Nichols has entered the race for the appointment now that Postmaster C. T. Bailey retires from the contest for reappointment. Col. Nichols will make a strong candidate, having a long and active Republican record.

Clement Rowland, a fifteen year old negro boy, has been committed to Wake jail on the charge of attempted criminal assault on the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Britt, in Panther Branch township. The boy was frightened away before he had more than seized hold of the child.

Died at Scott's Hill, N. C.

Relatives here yesterday were advised of the death of Mrs. Laura Corbett, aged 50 years, which occurred yesterday at her home in Scott's Hill. The remains were brought to Wilmington yesterday evening and taken on the northbound A. C. L. train to Rocky Point, N. C. Members of the family and a number of friends accompanied the remains.

CAROLINA SUMMER SCHOOL.

Interesting Exercises Yesterday—Closing Sessions at Beach To-day

The Carolina Summer School at Wrightsville Beach will come to a close this evening and many of the delegates and those conducting the Institute will begin leaving for their homes, while others will remain over to enjoy the pleasures of the seashore a while longer. The Institute has been a great success and has been of great benefit to those who attended the sessions.

The exercises yesterday were of an interesting and profitable nature, and the attendance was all that could have been desired. The services today will consist of interesting addresses by Dr. and Mrs. Hamill, Prof. Carre and Dr. Scherer. At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon what is known as a "Closing Recognition Service" will be held. All Sunday School workers are invited to the services.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The steamer A. J. Johnson has resumed her runs on Black River, after having been laid up since April on account of low water.

—The Sunday School of Brooklyn Baptist church enjoyed its annual excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday. The day was very pleasantly spent, the last boat reaching the city shortly after 7 o'clock.

—The trucks for the new car for the Consolidated Company have arrived and the other parts of the car will be here in a day or two. The new suburban will be in shape for the fourth of July travel.

—Willie Shiver, colored, was arrested early yesterday afternoon at the Carolina Central station by Special Officer C. T. Croom, charged with engaging in an affray. He will be given trial before the Mayor at noon to-day.

—By deed filed for record yesterday H. M. Millinor and wife transferred to David DeVanne, for $100, property on north side of Meares, 179 feet west of Third street, 38½x216 feet in size, more or less.

—A permit was granted yesterday to Owen Smith, colored, to build a one-story dwelling, to cost $300, on Wright, between Second and Third streets; also the Springer Coal Co., to build stables on its property at foot of Chestnut street.

—A delegation of the Fraternal Order of Eagles from Carolina Aerie, of this city, expects to go to Charlotte Monday night for the installation of a branch of the order in that city. It will be a notable gathering, as Eagles from all over the State will be there to take part in the team work.

—A special dance will be given at the Hotel Tarrymoore, on Wrightsville Beach, to-night in compliment to the large number of young people from all parts of the State, who are guests there. Beach residents as well as those from the city are cordially invited.

— One of those accidents that, we are told, "will happen," knocked one of our machines out of business yesterday morning just long enough to cause us to lose our early Carolina Central mail. It is needless to say that these troubles cause us more annoyance than they inflict on our subscribers and that we spare no effort to avoid them.

—Constable Savage yesterday afternoon at the Angola mill arrested Lee McNeill, a negro, wanted for drawing a knife on Capt. Thos. McGhee, at Carolina Beach, about three weeks ago when there was a colored excursion there. McNeill had kept out of the way until discovered by Constable Savage yesterday. He will be given preliminary trial before Justice Furlong to-morrow.

KENTUCKY REDUCES FREIGHTS.

Cut of Twenty-five Per Cent. Ordered on the L. & N.

Frankfort, Ky., June 20.—The State Railroad Commission today ordered a reduction of 25 per cent. in freight rates.

The matter of a freight rate regulation has been under investigation for six months past. The opinion of the commission sustains the contention of the shippers in all sections of the State, that the shippers have been discriminated against and that the entire State has suffered.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, which operates the greatest number of miles of road in the State, was taken as a basis. The commission orders a reduction of the Louisville mileage scale by 25 per cent on clases of freight on the main line, the Knoxville division and the Cumberland Valley division, in order to bring the rate to taht in effect on the Kentucky Central and Lexington divisions.

All the other roads in the State are brought down to this basis. It affects the Illnois Central Company mainly its short haul rates which are even greater than those of the Louisville and Nashville Company. The commission reserves for future consideration the matter of commodity rates.

BAGGAGE CHECKING REGULATED.

Important Bill Passed by House of Representatives.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 20.—A bill of great importance both to the railroads and the traveling public was passed today by the House under suspension of the rules, regulating the checking of baggage by common carriers. The bill compels common carriers engaged in interstate commerce to check baggage to its destination on transportation offered, whether in the form of what is known as "split tickets" or a regular ticket on one line and a mileage or other ticket on another line, to the destination of the baggage. The bill is intended to overcome the practice of the roads which now refuse to check baggage to its destination where a ticket to the junction point or termination of one road is offered and a mileage book or other transportation on the connecting road to the destination of the baggage is offered. The bill makes a refusal on the part of railroads to carry out its terms a misdemeanor and provides a penalty for its infraction.

BANKERS AT LAKE TOXAWAY.

President Evans Made His Annual Report Yesterday.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Asheville, N. C., June 20.—To-day's session of the North Carolina Bankers' Association at Lake Toxaway was featured by the reading of the annual reports of President C. N. Evans, of Wilmington. The principal item of interest therein was the unusually large number of new members taken into the association during the past year.

The report of Secretary W. A. Hunt, of Henderson, made a favorable showing. William F. Shaffner, of Winston-Salem, delivered an address on "Interest, Income and Investments."

The afternoon was taken up with an excursion on Lake Toxaway, and to-night the visitors were entertained with a banquet and ball.

TRANELING EXPENSES OF THE PRESIDENT

(Concluded on Page Five.)

before its people certain views upon public questions, a public opinion was developed which had already been placed on a Democratic platform and now practically within our laws, and almost inevitably within the course of the next few years will make the balance of the Democratic iuea the dominant feature of our legislation. Now I would much prefer that this had been accomplished by the Democrats. They have had the disposition, but way or oter they did not have the effective force. But since the President has seen fit to use the means by which a railroad rate bill is a treaty on its way to the statute books, and we have a force through which the 'stand patter' will be upset within the next few years, and I do not want this side to do anything which is likely to withstand or arrest the march of the salutary force in the development of that salutary purpose. Mr. Roosevelt's speeches throughout this country have been, I think by the confession of everybody, the strongest force in the development of public opinion in favor of the railroad rate bill." (Applause.)

The following Democrats voted with the Republicans: Broussard (Louisiana), Clark (Florida), Cockran (New York), Davey (Louisiana), Fitzgerald (New York), Goulden (New York), Glass (Virginia), Granger (Rhode Island), Hunt (Missouri), Keliher (Massachusetts), Kline (Pennsylvania), Lindsay (New York), Meyer (Louisiana), Ransdell (Louisiana), Ruppert (New York), Ryan (New York), Sherley (Kentucky), Sullivan (Massachusetts).

WATTERSON ON SECTIONALISM.

Speech By Brilliant Kentuckian in New England.

Providence, R. I., June 20.—Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, delivered an address to-day at the commencement banquet of Brown University on "Sectionalism" which he declared he had fought all of his life and against which he would set provincialism and the spirit of provincialism. "The one is a destroyer, the other a builder," said Mr. Watterson. "Sectionalism deals with the remote and unfamiliar. It makes distinction. It raises differences. It breeds hatred and organizes mistakes. It is not easy to establish fixed prejudice between kindred communities lying alongside. Too much intercourse. Too much common interests. Too many ties of blood and affection. In the final equation the good and the true will outweigh the sinister and the false. But distance lends not always enchantment—sometimes misconception and acrimony—to the view too often enabling the self seeker and the bigot the easier to do their lighting.

'Why is it that we so condemn and yet so cultivate sectionalism? It is because that unconsciously our opinions take the color of our interests, and that, in a country so separate and so vast these interests sometimes conflict."

Mr. Watterson declared the great issue now is embodied in the simple question, shall mammon, or manhood prevail in the government of the country.

SEVERAL BILLS PASSED BY HOUSE

had been considered by any committee and whether there is any law to authorize the payment of the President's traveling expenses. In reply Senator Hale said the amendment was considered and ordere reported by the committee on appropriations.

It is new legislation, and I make a point of order against it," said Mr. McLaurin.

"I do not think there is any law authorizing it, and if adopted, it will put a new law on the statute books."

"The chair is of the opinion that the point of order is not well taken and overrules the point of order," said the Vice President.

"Then I appeal from the inspector and would like to have the ayes and noes," said Mr. McLaurin.

Senator Clay asked Mr. McLaurin to withhold his demand on the ground that there was not a quorum present, and a roll call would compel an adjournment.

"The amendment is of such an outrageous character that I do not think it should pass under any circumstances," retorted Mr. McLaurin. When it was evident that his opposition was unalterable the amendment was passed over at the request of Mr. Hale who had the bill in charge.

THE HOUSE.

Washington, June 20.—Twenty bills of more or less general interest were passed to-day by the House under suspension of rules, among them were measures appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the President which excited considerable debate; providing for the sub-division of lands entered under the reclaimation act; increasing the efficiency of the bureau of insular affairs by conferring the rank and pay of a brigadier general upon the chief of the bureau; and regulating the checking of baggage by common carriers.

The joint resolution increasing the terms of representatives to four years and the bill amending Section 5136 of the revised statutes permitting national banking associations to make loans on real estate as security and limiting the amounts of such loans failed to receive the necessary two-thirds vote.

The House also passed a rule to begin the consideration of the pure food bill tomorrow and after twelve hours of debate to vote on the substitute to the Senate bill without intervening motion.

The labor movement should disassociate itself from partisan politics and then labor people should regard themselves not so much as Democrats or Republicans, but as labor men, and use their great strength and their great influence to elect to Congress candidates favorable to them. After showing the great power the labor element possesses they will receive respectful consideration of their demands."

"What part will you take in the movement," was asked.

OUR TROUBLE WITH PANAMA.

Little Republic Prohibits Importation of Tobacco to Canal Zone.

aPnama, June 20.—Serious differences may arise between the United States and the Republic of Panama regarding the right of the former to import into the canal zone commissaries supplies of tobacco free of duty. Panama denies this right, claiming that tobacco is not an article of first necessity nor one required in canal construction. The last Panama assembly established a duty of $1 per pound on tobacco, thus making its importation practically prohibitive. When the tobacco monopoly granted by Colombia expired, President Amador said to the Associated Press today he was unable to bring about a reduction of the duty, but being authorized to sell the right to collect revenue, he did so in order to prevent loss to the treasury. Public bids were asked for, the highest bidders being the former holders of the extinguished monopoly, and to them the contract was awarded. On the few cigars that are imported the duty is paid to the contractors instead of the government. President Amador says that when the assembly meets next September he will ask for immediate legislation reducing the duty on tobacco.

It is reported that should the canal commission insist on importing tobacco, Panama will protest and endeavor to step the importation as an infringement of the law of Panama and the treaty with the United States. Cigarettes are not included in the tobacco contract.

PRESIDENT C. N. EVANS TO THE STATE BANKERS

Annual Address a Striking Presentation of the Wealth and Resources of North Carolina—Delivered Yesterday at Lake Toxaway, N. C.

The following is the splendid address of President Chas. N. Evans to the State Bankers' Association yesterday at Lake Toxaway, N. C. Mr. Evans' address is a splendid review of the wealth and resources of North Carlina and is published in full. He said:

Members of the North Carolina Bankers Association, Ladies and Gentlemen:—

It is with special pleasure that I welcome you at the Tenth Annual Convention of this organization. We have met, not only to add impetus and force to its usefulness along practical lines, but as well to mingle socially and informally with the men with whom our intercourse is but rarely anything else than formal business. Accustomed, as your former Secretary, to note, in detail, the attendance, the personnel and the beneficial results of these meetings, I am moved to congratulate you upon the attendance today, and to wish for you a most successful and pleasant Convention. For the promotion, through which I have the honor to preside at this session, I wish again, to express my grateful appreciation. That it is an honor, is conclusively shown in the reputation and character of the financial institutions represented here, and emphasized in the zeal with which these institutions are seeking to improve, and are improving their financial status.

It pleases me, in behalf of the Association, to extend a cordial welcome to the many new banks represented here for the first time. It is an equal pleasure to welcome so many guests from other States who have favored us with their presence. It is fitting that we greet them here, in the fairest, most picturesque region of our beautiful Southland—a region where Nature reaches up, as it were, to drink the lighter airs of etherial joy, a region but recently revealed through the courage and industry of modern progress, yet one which is already attracting the admiration of the Western Hemisphere. Capital, "that cowardly fellow," is also attracted, and could you but follow the singing brooklets that flow at your feet you would be led from this Paradise of rustic beauty into sections where Nature's music is drowned in the whir of wheels, the clang of machinery, the roar of steam, the crash of falling timber. You would be led through sections of industrial activity where every article, commodity and necessity is made, mined or grown, and finally to the shores of the grand Atlantic which wash the boundaries of North Carolina for three hundred and fifteen miles.

Industrial Development.

A further word as to our industrial development: Without going into tiresome statistics, let me say that in the past five years North Carolina has increased her invested capital in manufacturing over 100 per cent., and since our last meeting, one year ago, she has chartered nine hundred and ten industrial corporations. In 1900 she chartered only three hundred and six, and in 1895 only one hundred and thirty-three.

Railroads.

In the first four months of the present year she has chartered three railroads, giving a total of fifty-five lines, with those formerly established.

Cotton.

In cotton manufacturing she holds second place in the Southern States, having 242 mills employing 1,770,967 spindles and 38,590 looms; practically as many as were employed in the entire South in 1890. The value of her cotton crop has grown from $26,000,000 in 1902 to $37,000,000 in 1905; her sales of manufactured cotton goods to $47,000,000, while her sales of cotton seed oil increased to $5,000,000 last year. A system of Compresses and Docks, operated by the Sprunts at Wilmington, is the most convenient and extensive in the United States, and shipments aggregating $18,000,000 were made by them to foreign ports in 1904.

Tobacco.

In the culture and manufacture of tobacco, North Carolina is known throughout the world, her leaf and manufactured product selling for $28,000,000 annually, and finding a ready market in foreign countries.

Fruit and Vegetables.

Fifteen years ago fruit and vegetables were produced here only for local consumption. Last year it required ten thousand men, women, and children to harvest the strawberry crop alone in Eastern Carolina. This crop aggregated 2,700 carloads, valued approximately at $2,000,000, while the total value of all other fruits, vegetables and grain produced, etc., is enormous.

Timber and Lumber.

Twelve years ago the manufacture of furniture was practically unknown in this State. Today, we have 50 furniture factories selling their product for approximately $6,000,000 and distributing it as far West as the Pacific Coast and as far as Africa on the East. Mr. Richard H. Edmunds, the peerless editor of that great Southern organ, the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, says that one-half of the standing timber of the United States is south of Mason & Dixon's line. Certain it is that many fortunes have been made recently in the Eastern sections of the State by the sale of timber rights and lands.

FINANCIAL.

The State

The assessed value of property in North Carolina is approximately $500,000,000. Her indebtedness is around $7,000,000 yet she possesses marketable Railroad and Turnpike bonds which if sold today would liquidate her entire indebtedness with a surplus to spare.

Banks and Banking.

Touching that subject which interests us most, I am pleased to announce that the condition of the banking interests of North Carolina has never been before more favorable. Since our last annual meeting there has been but one failure, and this of a very small institution. On the other hand we have entered a period in which the multiplicity of small banks has become almost bewildering. In the past five years we have organized on an average about three banks per month, and still the work goes on. While this seems to be a general condition in the Southern States, the statistics show that in the first four months of this year year our own State, in organizing twenty banks of $880,000 capital took fourth place. These banks included 13 State Banks with a capitalization of $390,000, one of $100,000 and three National Banks with aggregate capital of $140,000, also four Trust Companies with aggregate capital of $350,000, three of the latter having $100,000 each. Since May 1st, 1905, one year ago, we have charterel 28 new banks.

To bring forcibly before you the growth of our banking interest, I beg to submit a few figures wich I have compiled from State and National reports and from data obtained as an officer in this organization:

Co.mparative Statement June, 1901—April, 1906.
NATIONAL BANKS.
50 Banks in 1906.
36 Banks in 1901.

	Capital	Sur. & Prof.	Deposits	Loans	Total Assets
1906—	$4,270,000.00	$2,667,673.27	$20,060,800,58	$19,422,528.40	$31,712,590.17
1901—	$3,172,050.00	$1,605,334.00	$ 9,745,116.28	$10.243.277.37	$17,075,273.23
Gain—	$1,098,050.00	$1,062,339.27	$10,315,684.30	$ 9,179,251.03	$14,637,316.94

STATE BANKS, SAVINGS BANKS LOAN AND TRUST COMPANIES.
234 Banks in 1906.
102 Banks in 1901

	Capital	Sur. & Prof.	Deposits	Loans	Total Assets
1906—	$6,056,800,86	$2,420,726.93	$32,065,799.85	$28,928,770.87	$43,380,000.52
1901—	$3,063,598,17	$1,119,097.76	$10,544,955.80	$10,923,167.32	$15,857,939.42
Gain—	$2,993,202.69	$1,301,629.17	$21,520,844.05	$18,005,603.55	$27,522,061.10

It will be seen from this comparison that since 1901 our banks have increased in:

Capital	$ 4,091,252.69
Surplus and Profits	2,363,968.44
Deposits	31,836,528.35
Loans	27,584,454.58
Assets	42,159,378.04

And today the total banking strength is as follows:

TOTAL STRENGTH TO-DAY
Number of Banks 284.

Capital	$10,326,800.86
Surplus and Profits	5,088,400.20
Deposits	52,126,600.43
Loans	48,351,299.27
Total Assets	75,092,590.69

The wonderful increase in the banking resources as shown by these figures furnish the truest index to the material prosperity of the State. At the same time it is in periods of this kind that the banking class should preserve the utmost conservatism in the management of their institutions, and as the retiring executive of your Association, I would sound a word of caution. The disposition to organize banks of insufficient capital and place them, in many instances, in the care of inexperienced officers, must inevitably result in confusion if not in actual loss. There seems to be necessity for increased capital in the banks already operating, rather than the organization of new institutions. This statement is borne out in the figures exhibited in the official statements made by our banks April 6th, 1906. At that time the banks of North Carolina were borrowing, through notes and rediscounts, $2,338,246.61. Of this sum $1,224,872.87 was borrowed by the State Banks, Savings Banks, Loan and Trust Companies, and $1,113,373.74 by the National Banks. Sixty-nine of the State Banks were borrowers, the percentage of amount borrowed being 62 per cent. to their capital stock. Statistics are not yet available showing the number of National Banks borrowing at that time, but the percentage borrowed to capital of all was 26 per cent. Putting them together the percentage borrowed to total capital stock of all banks was 38 per cent. The extent to which some of the smaller banks borrow seems incompatible with sound discretion. Four of these, at the last statement, with aggregate capital of $36,000 were borrowing $36,000; two were borrowing a sum equal to double their capital, while seventeen others, with aggregate capital of only $335,500 were borrowers to the extent of $454,033.29, or $118,533.29 in excess of their paid to retire this paper, it would seem to be the duty of our bank directors to establish a more conservative limit. Another argument for greater capital lies in the fact that some of our smaller institutions, in their eagerness to carry large accounts, are lending one concern, corporation or individual equal to, and in some cases amounts in excess of the capital stock of the bank. In other words, a total loss of such a loan would deprive the bank of its entire capital. Benjamin Franklin said: "At a great pennyworth pause a while, many are ruined in buying bargains!" Greater safety, profit and prosperity will come from small loans widely placed, and it is not wise to carry all of your eggs in one basket.

In conclusion, I desire to thank our efficient Secretary and Executive Committee for their work in the year just ended. Not having been a legislative year, the work of the Association in the main has been of a routine character. The Executive Committee has met twice during the year, and as usual matter of importance were discussed. The incoming Committee will be duly advised as to these.

In the company of your Secretary and Mr. Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh, I recently attended at Washington, a meeting of the Uniform Bill of Lading Committee of the American Bankers Association and appeared with them before a Congressional Committee, to whom the question of a uniform bill of lading was argued. I consider this matter of much importance to our Association and would ask your support to a resolution touching the subject which will be introduced before this session.

The programme presented before you at this meeting includes many subjects of interest to each of our bankers and I hope we may hear suggestions from each section represented, as only through a free discussion from all sides can we arrive at wise conclusions.

I will ask you to present to this body any suggestion you may have in mind for a betterment of the laws controlling our banks. These will be referred to the Executive Committee and will receive careful attention. The Association has demonstrated its usefulness to the banks in presenting before committees of the Legislature facts and conditions which have resulted in wise laws, and on the other hand have, in the same manner prevented harmful or unwise measures. The very excellent service performed by the North Carolina Corporation Commission and its most efficient Bank Examiners is resulting in great good, and it pleases me greatly, in retiring from this office, to be able to say that the Banks of North Carolina are earnest and eager in their desire to build up their own strongholds and in doing so to aid in the development and greater prosperity of the Old North State.

Thanking you for your patient and courteous attention.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 20.—The cotton market continued nervous and irregular but showed a steadier tone after an early break and closed 7 to 10 points net higher. Sales were estimated at 250,000. The market opened steady at an advance of 2 points on July and unchanged on later positions and almost immediately broke sharply under a renewal of July liquidation with the ring crowded with selling orders which were attributed to over night margin calls. The decline carried July down to 10.23 or 8 points net lower and 109 points down from the high level of last month, while October declined only 3 points to 10.30 and thus commanded a premium of about 7 points over July. There was a good deal of buying at the decline with spot people and parties supposed to represent spinners buyers of July, offerings for long accounts were less pressing after the early break and the market rallied during the middle session on covering with the tone quite firm in the late session on reports of dry hot winds in Texas, following a forecast for continued dry weather. Last prices were within a couple of points of the best for the day and the final tone was steady. A feature of the day was the talk of increased spot demand, and English spot sales were 2,000 bales.

Receipts at the ports today 5,719 bales against 3,412 last week and 12,104 last year. For the week estimated 30,000 bales against 29,470 last week and 78,057 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,882 bales against 4,248 last year and at Houston 681 bales against 3,788 last year.

MEAT INSPECTION BILL DOESN'T PLEASE SENATE

Dissatisfaction Caused by Houses Striking Out Two Amendments

PROCTOR LEADS DEBATE

Insists That Packers Should Pay Expenses for Meat Inspection.

LABELS SHOULD BE DATED

Beveridge and Lodge Agree With Him and Warren Opposed—Packers and Standard Oil Responsible for Socialistic Growth.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington June 20. — Senator Proctor to-day called up in the Senate the Agricultural Appropriation bill and made a statement concerning the House substitute for the meat inspection provision, saying that there were two essential points of difference between the two Houses, one of these, he said, was the omission by the House of the Senate provision requiring that the date of inspection be placed on cans containing meat and the other the transfer of the cost of inspection from the packers to the national treasury. Speaking of the latter change he said that it was radical and in his opinion unwise and advised that the House amendment on that point be not accepted. The packers could, he declared, afford the expense as an advertisement, for looked at in that light, the government certificate would be of immense benefit. Mr. Proctor also charged that the numerous protests which have been coming to the Senate on this subject have a common origin in Chicago, and in support of his statement read a number of the protests to show the language to be practically the same wherever they may be dated.

Senator Beveridge agreed with Mr. Proctor as to the unwisdom of the House changes in the matters of date of labels and cost of inspection, but expressed gratification that the provision for night surveillance had been retained. The two essential changes he considered as most important, declaring that if the date is not to be used, it will be possible to pass off as fresh meat that which may have been inspected five years ago. He said that the date is stamped on meat shipped abroad and argued that the same plan should be pursued with reference to meat consumed at home Why, he asked, should the people pay for the packers' inspection and not the packers themselves, and agreeing with Mr. Proctor, said the government stamp would be worth eight or ten millions for advertising purposes. Looking at the matter in that light the cost of inspection would not be a burden because the inspection would be a great benefit.

Senator Lodge also spoke for the Senate provisions, although he said it might be considered in view of the announcement that the House had perfected the measure and the President had accepted it. He pleaded especially for the dating of labels because the public has the right to know what it is buying.

Mr. Lodge referred to a recently published interview with Nelson Morris, in which this great packer showed contempt for writers of books, and the Massachusetts Senator said the writing of a book brought about the present situation, and it may occur to the packers that "the writing of books is not so contemptible." The men responsible for the meat packing and Standard Oil monopolies, said Mr. Lodge, have done more to advance socialism, anarchism, unrest and unwholesome conditions in the United States than all of the socialists in the world.

Senator Warren defended the stock raisers and farmers, upon whom he said the burden would fall if the inspection costs were imposed by the bill upon the packers, and denounced as "simply monstrous" the proposition of Messrs. Beveridge and Proctor that they should be required to advertise their business in a prescribed way. He also said that the legislation is aimed at the farmers and stock growers, and contended that instead of taxing them and the packers for the proposed inspection the entire country should pay the expense.

THREATS OF LYNCHING AGAINST RICH WOMAN

Mrs. Emma Kauffmann Charged With Murder of Sixteen Year Old Maid Servant—Mob Hissed Her in the Court House

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Sioux Fals, S. D., June 20.—Mrs. Emma Kauffman, wife of a wealthy Sioux Falls brewer, was brought into court today for the conclusion of her preliminary hearing on a charge of having caused the death of her maid servant, Agnes Polreis. She was hissed when she went into the court room and when she came out an angry demonstration was made and cries of "lynch her" were heard.

Mrs. Kauffman was held on a charge of murder. The case will be called for trial in November, Miss Polreis, who was 17 years of age, died June 1, and was buried at Parkston this State. The body later was exhumed and was found to bear 45 seperate wounds.

Two hours before the time set for the hearing crowds began gathering in and around the court room and when the case was called every avialable foot of space in the court room, the door ways and in the halls adjoining, was packed. Many women were in the crowds and society circles were well represented.

When the carriage occupied by Mrs. Kauffman and her husband drove up, the sidewalk was so crowded that it was with difficulty that policemen forced a passage to the court room. It was while the party was making its way through the hall way that Mrs. Kauffman was hissed by the spectators, the hisses coming largely from safety, when cries of "Lynch her!" self possession but her face grew very pale. After being in the court room for a few minutes, she was again escorted to the sidewalk, but her carriage had not returned and after a short, painful wait, her husband and others of the little party started across the street seeking refuge in a livery stable. The crowd packed closely about them and for a moment there were fears for Mrs. Kauffman's safety, when cries of "Lynch her!" were heard. The Kauffman party engaged a carriage in the stable where thed had taken refuge and while the crowd was packed closely around one of the stable doors, the carirage escaped by dashing at full speed from another door.

The crowd as soon as the carriage was seen hastening away, followed it for a short distance, gave vent to shouts and derisive cries until the vehicle was out of sight. It was sever al hours before the excitement died down and the people dispersed.

LABORING MEN AND POLITICS

William R. Hearst Advises Federation to Try That Instead of Strikes.

Working Men Should Vote for Members of Congress Who Will Stand for Their Interests—His Papers With Them.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 20.—"I believe that labor can better obtain its ends by entering into politics and making any reasonable demands of the people and of the government as a national factor than by resorting to force, such as in calling strikes. By that I mean that labor can gain a great deal by entering the political arena."

This was the opinion expressed by Representative William R. Hearst, of New York, after a brief visit today to the meeting of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor now in session here.

Mr. Hearst had been invited by President Gompers to give to the council his opinion as to the question of labor entering into politics in the effort to obtain the ends for which it is working. "The laboring men, know ing my attitude on the question," said Mr. Hearst, "merely desired to question me as to how, when and where labor could derive the best benefits by entering politics.

"I told the council that it was my opinion that laboring men should enter politics," said Mr. Hearst, "practically along the same lines that I have expressed in my newspapers and that it was desirable that they make

Bill Passed Appropriating That Amoun for Traveling Expenses—Senate Discussed Meat Inspection Bill—Panama aCnal.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 20.—The meat inspection provision of the agricultural appropriation bill was to-day made the subject of discussion in the Senate. The question came up on a motion by Senator Proctor to grant the conference requested by the House, and speeches were made by Messrs. Proctor, Beveridge and Lodge against some features of the House amendment and by Senator Warren in opposition to drastic legislation. Mr. Lodge took occasion to defend American morals as quite as good as those Europe. The bill went over without action.

There were two speeches on the Panama canal, one by Senator Morgan in support of the sea level plan and the other by Senator Perkins in opposition.

The Senate held its first night session, which was devoted to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

At the night session the reading of the bill proceeded slowly and all of the committee amendments were agreed to until the one appropriating $25,000 to pay the traveling expenses of the President was reached. Senator McLaurin asked if the amendment

PHILIPPINE TOWN ATTACKED BY BANDITS

Five Policemen Killed, Five Wounded and Balance of Force Carried Away as Captives—Bandit Chief Was Killed.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Manila, June 20.—A band of 300 Pulajanes under Cearsarie Pastor attacked the town of Burauen, on the Island of Leyte yesterday, June 19. They killed five policemen, wounded five and captured the remainder of the force except the Lieutenant who was in command.

Pastor, the Pulajanes leader, was killed during the encounter. The attack occured at an early hour in the morning. The police were caught unawares, and their sentinel was rushed from his post. The bandits then entered the tribunal and a hand to hand fight took place. The police fought desperately, but were overcome by superior numbers.

The loss of the Pulajanes is believed to have been great, but it cannot be estimated, as they carried off their dead and wounded after the fight.

The municipal records were taken from the tribunal, piled in the street and burned.

The destruction of these papers was one of the most serious phases of the raid, as they included deeds, license, receipts. The safe containing the town funds was not disturbed. The bandits carried away the arms of the police and a quantity of ammunition.

A detachment of constabulary, under Lieutenant Johnson, immediately started in pursuit of the Pulajanes.

At the time the raid was made provincial Governor Veyra was in another part of the island, securing evidence wanted by the pardon committee to obtain the release of prisoners in the Bilibid penitentiary.

TRAVELING EXPENSES FOR THE PRESIDENT

House Pnsses Bill Appropriating $25,000 For Purpose

DEBATE QUITE WARM

Underwood, of Alabama, Urged That it is Contrary to Constitution.

JAMES SPOKE AGAINST BILL

Bourke Cockran, Democrat, Favored Paying President's Expenses Bease He Makes Speeches Advancing Democratic Cause.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 20.—The bill appropriating $25,000 to defray the traveling expenses of the President for the next fiscal year was called up under suspension of the rules to-day in the House by Mr. Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the appropriations committee.

The sundry civil bill carried an item appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the President, which went out on a point or order. Mr. Watson, of Indiana then in the chair, and who sustained the point of order against the item, introduced the bill which the House had under consideration to-day.

Mr. Tawney stated that the whole subject of providing for the President's traveling expenses had been debated at length during the consideration of the sundry civil bill.

Mr. James, of Kentucky, wanted to know what official duty carried the President abroad. "Isn't it true that there is no official duty requiring him to leave the capital?" he asked.

Mr. Tawney said that while he could not recall any official duty just at present that might take him outside the capital he could easily conceive how as commander-in-chief of the army and navy he might be called upon at any moment to travel."

Mr. Underwood called attention to the clause in the constitution wherein it is provided that the President "Shall at stated times receive for his services a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States or any of them." He said that it was not of much avail to make a constitutional argument to the men on the other side of the center aisle (meaning the Republican side), but he could not consistently agree to the voting of this money. He said there were some advantages to the country growing out of the President's trips, "but the utterance of a President of the United States has a world's audience, no matter where he makes it, and it is just as effective made in the city of Washington as in San Francisco or Chicago."

This statement of Mr. Underwood brought Mr. Bourke Cockran, of New York, into the arena in support of the bill, saying he was not willing to make a partisan matter out of the measure. Continuing, Mr. Cockran said

"The point I wanted to submit to the gentlemen and our side here and to the entire House of Representatives is this: That in the operation of our constitutional system the President has become a great leader of public thought and public opinion, quite as much as a mere executive of laws and if the circulation of the President throughout the country adds practically in the direction of improved legislation, giving effective direction to public opinion, whether that be not an expense that ought legitimately be borne out of the public treasury."

Mr. James, of Kentucky, interrupted to say that Mr. Cockran might suggest in addition, that the next time the President spoke it might be on something that would not redound to the good of the people.

"I am perfectly willing that the people should be the judge of that matter," replied Mr. Cockran.

In oncluding, Mr. Cokran said: "It affords me very great satisfaction to support the proposition of the Committee on Appropriations. I hold it as a very suspicious sign that this suggestion comes from the majority of the House. For many years the Democratic party had advocated certain policies, but some way or other it has failed to get them incorporated into our political system. However, within the last two or three years a new force has developed, giving to the country from Republican sources, a wonderfully efficient enactment of Democratic ideas. By circulating throughout this country and placing
